REVIEWS

Klosters:

The American High Society from film, music, theatre and literature came and went from here as far back as the 1950s. So much so, that the village gained the title "Hollywood on the Rocks". Paul Newman, Gregory Peck, Yul Brynner, Lauren Bacall, Gene Kelly and Greta Garbo are just a few of the names that graced the region, and not to forget Lady Diana and Prince Charles and the two Princes.

Chalet BEAR is one of the few remaining log chalets in Klosters, and one of the loveliest places to stay in the Alps. It feels like you're living in an ancient wooden jewel box, which creaks and groans when the sun hits it in the morning and it starts to warm up. The interiors are classy, but without a trace of bling, thank goodness. There are four en suite bedrooms and a cosy wood-panelled sitting room with a log fire. Bear is handy for the centre of the village, too. Chalet Maldeghem is an authentic Swiss chalet with six bedrooms, a first-rate chef and an extensive wine cellar. The chalet is tucked away in a quiet part of Klosters, convenient for the cross-country track and the Madrisa family ski area.

The Chalet Bear Lay-out

Davos Klosters is one of the most renowned holiday destinations in the world, and boasts the most comprehensive holiday, sports and conference facilities in the mountains.

The contrast between the urban Davos and the idyllic Klosters could not be more pronounced: Here Davos, the highest town in Europe, famed for the diversity of sports, leisure and cultural facilities, its rejuvenating climate, the HC Davos, the Spengler Cup, the Kirchner Museum, the World

Economic Forum and the celebrated freestyle scene on the Jakobshorn. Here Klosters with its chic charm, where discreet luxury with understatement also draws royal guests. The location is certainly renowned worldwide as a classic holiday resort, but it is never one of those with the greatest media presences..

Enjoy family-friendly winter holidays with skiing, snowboarding or tobogganing in Davos Klosters. Family holiday friendliness is actually certified here: The destination has been awarded the quality seal "families welcome" by the Swiss tourism association. The seal distinguishes holiday destinations that specifically align their offerings with the needs and requirements of children and their guardians. For a successful family holiday from A to Z.

Davos is known as the party town of the Alps. With good reason: Only here does one find night life options similar to those of the major urban centres. Additionally, Klosters boasts small but exceptional establishments, which impress due to their unique character.

Where there is always something happening in Davos Klosters, from dusk until dawn: You enjoy the benefits of the diverse night life in the Alps.
